

The National Conservative Campaign Fund

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Friend:

It's now down to the wire.

As I write this, the 2004 elections are only days away. The ultra-liberal juggernaut – Hollywood elitists, labor union bosses, left-wing billionaires, rapacious trial lawyers, and other assorted malcontents – has shelled out hundreds of millions of dollars in an all-out effort to capture the White House and seize control of Congress.

News media bias also is at work. The shabby saga of the phony documents touted by CBS News and Dan Rather as proof that George W. Bush shirked his National Guard duty comes as no surprise to conservatives. And of course, the media claim John Kerry and John Edwards “won” their debates against George Bush and Dick Cheney. The liberal media are shedding their false front of objectivity and actively boosting liberals. No wonder conservatives always must work harder to win elections and get their messages out.

That's where NCCF comes in. Our only purpose is to provide badly needed campaign funds to top conservative candidates going head-to-head with liberal Democrats in the toughest election campaigns in the country. When they're up against powerful labor unions, the unfair news media, and other institutional disadvantages, conservative candidates need to know they can count on help. They get it from NCCF.

But there's only one way that's possible: generous, loyal support from concerned Americans like you. I want to once again thank you for everything you've done to enable NCCF to come to the aid of good conservative candidates as never before. We were able to provide all-important “early money” to key campaigns when they needed it most. Now we want to be ready with assistance to candidates as they deal with their last-minute campaign expenses. I appreciate your standing with us this vital election year.

Sincerely,

Thomas L. Phillips
Chairman

P.S. Be sure to vote on Election Day! Our efforts will be in vain if our side doesn't turn out. And invite a conservative friend, neighbor, relative or co-worker to go with you to the polls, especially if that person might not be voting otherwise. You'll double your impact and have good company as you get ready to cast your ballot.

FUN IN THE SUN: CALIFORNIA FUND-RAISER SUCCESSFUL

Newport Harbor, California, was the scene for a star-studded NCCF fund-raising event on the evening of August 5. Hosts John and Donna Crean made available their magnificent yacht, the Donna C., for a sunset cruise in Newport Harbor featuring special guest Pat Sajak and piano virtuoso Roger Williams.

California Congressmen Chris Cox, Dana Rohrabacher and Ed Royce served as co-hosts, while NCCF stalwart supporters Bob and LaDorna Eichenberg acted as honorary event chairmen. Guests enjoyed conversation and cocktails at the Crean residence prior to setting sail.

STEELE STARS AT NCCF D.C. FUND-RAISER

To raise much-needed funds to help candidates with last-minute contributions, NCCF sponsored a fund-raising reception on Capitol Hill on October 12. Our original guest of honor was to have been House Speaker Dennis Hastert, but because Congress adjourned just three days earlier, he was unable to attend, having to return to Illinois to begin making campaign appearances. Representing the Speaker, on short notice, was Maryland Lt. Gov. Michael Steele, a rising star in both Maryland and national GOP politics. Here are a few scenes from the successful evening.

ELECTION NIGHT EVENT FOR NCCF SUPPORTERS

If you live in or will be in the Washington, D.C. area on Election Night, come join us as we follow the returns. NCCF's Election Night Party 2004 will be held at the well known University Club at 1135 16th Street, NW, in Washington – close to the White House and near other major election celebrations. Food and beverages, valet parking, and full election coverage will be featured. It's only $50 per person, a rate which allows us to cover costs. Contact NCCF at 202-842-1642 if you'd like to attend.

THE NATIONAL CONSERVATIVE CAMPAIGN FUND MISSION STATEMENT

The National Conservative Campaign Fund (NCCF) shall enlist the support and involvement of all Americans who cherish the principles of liberty and limited government so eloquently expressed in the Constitution of the United States. The NCCF will provide support to conservative initiatives and candidates for public office who demonstrate their commitment to those principles. NCCF-supported candidates will favor fidelity to our written Constitution and the ideals of the Declaration of Independence, a free enterprise system thriving within a free market, smaller government, lower taxes, reduced regulation of businesses and citizens, traditional cultural values, a strong national defense (the hallmark being the Reagan doctrine of "peace through strength"), and a foreign policy which secures the just and legitimate interests of the United States.

HELP THE NATIONAL CONSERVATIVE CAMPAIGN FUND BUILD ON ITS WINNING RECORD!

We must have your help today. In the 2004 elections, expanding the conservative majority in Congress is our top priority. But if the resources aren't there to help good conservative candidates, we'll have no choice but to let the liberals take control of Congress. Will you stand with us to prevent it?

YES!, You can count on me to make sure NCCF will be ready for the coming elections. Here's my most generous contribution of:
