WHY OBAMA'S POLICIES COULD ENDANGER YOU AND YOUR FAMILY — AND HOW YOU CAN HELP STOP IT

Dear Fellow Conservative,

The left has gotten completely out of control in Washington, D.C.

Your freedom, your way of life, your beliefs, everything you cherish -- all are under assault by the Obama-Pelosi-Reid socialists.

The far-left Democrats who now run Washington have launched a power grab so vast, so breathtaking in scope, that even FDR and LBJ, at the height of their New Deal and Great Society, never tried to expand government with the same fervor as Barack Obama, Nancy Pelosi, and Harry Reid.

Yet there's hope (and I don't mean Obama-style "hope"). There's a way to thwart the Obama-Pelosi-Reid march to socialism before it's too late. But you, and patriots like you, need to act boldly -- now! I'll explain in a moment how your help can be decisive. I'll also tell you how you can get a FREE copy of Culture of Corruption, by Michelle Malkin. This blockbuster New York Times best-seller blows the lid off the Obama political machine. It's a "must-have" book to fight back against Obama's so-called "change."

First, let's look at the damage the Obama Administration and its Congressional allies, led by House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Senate Democrat Leader Harry Reid, have already inflicted on America (and they're threatening to do even more):

- Trillions of dollars have been spent on wasteful, ineffective “stimulus” programs. Where did the money come from? Much of it was borrowed from Communist China. The rest simply was printed, threatening to push the country into massive inflation.
- Hardcore terrorists from Guantanamo in civilian courts? The liberal hand-wringers in the Obama Administration and Congress who care more about the rights of mass murderers than their victims insist on it -- instantly making those courts almost irresistible targets for more terror attacks.
- Expanding on a harebrained idea from the end of the George Bush era, Obama and Congress engineered enormous bailouts for Wall Street and other entities.
- Obama and his allies have nationalized the auto industry and given their cronies in the United Auto Workers union unprecedented power and control over the major carmakers.
- Washington has all but taken over the banking industry.
- Obama, Pelosi, and Reid are relentlessly pushing for socialized medicine.
- Hordes of unelected “czars” have been appointed to rule over everything from AIDS policy to executive salaries.

My friend, as bad as those are, they're just the tip of the iceberg. Still to come are the job-killing, tax-hiking “cap and trade” scheme... so-called “card check,” which the union bosses desperately want so they can bully employees and employers alike into forced unionization... federalizing education by ending local control of schools... tax increases of every size, shape, and description... further weakening of national defense (Obama started by canceling a new missile defense shield the same day North Korea test-fired another long-range rocket)... and more.

Even worse, Obama, Pelosi, Reid, and their allies are ruthlessly attacking their critics in ways that have even their allies gasping in shock. For example, the White House has compiled a secret, Nixon-like “enemies list.” Outrageous, ultra-liberal New York Sen. Charles Schumer has called conservative talk radio a form of pornography. Other key Democrats have called for increased government regulation of the airwaves to choke off talk radio. In an unprecedented move, Obama has declared war on the Fox News Channel. Pelosi has called the national “tea party” movement just a ploy by “the rich” to avoid having their taxes raised. It's not a grassroots movement, she says, but “Astroturf.” Organizing for America, the Democratic National Committee's front group for the Obama-Pelosi-Reid agenda, called “tea party” participants “right-wing domestic terrorists” and “treacherous.”

The Obama-Pelosi-Reid policies, and the aggressive, frightening assault on their critics, should have you, your family, and friends worried -- very worried.

Obama's agenda is ambitious -- but he can't impose it by himself. It's up to Congress to legislate. And there lies the secret to thwarting the threats to liberty and march to socialism.

Republican scandals, “Bush fatigue,” and Obama's pied-piper “Yes we can” campaign swept many Democrats into House and Senate seats they have no business holding. As Obama and the Congressional leadership push ever-more-radical policies, even Democrats who owe their Congressional seats to the Obama phenomenon are having second thoughts and getting cold feet.

Meanwhile, Republicans are re-learning the message that freedom, limited government, tax relief, and less spending work, while Obama-Pelosi-Reid socialism will fail. They're taking that message to the people. Excellent conservative candidates are mounting challenges to the “Obamacrats” and gearing up for the 2010 elections, now just 11 months away.

This is the key: more true conservative candidates need to be elected to the U.S. House and Senate if there is to be any chance of putting up a roadblock to stop the radical Obama-Pelosi-Reid agenda. But for any chance of electing more conservatives, you need to step up and take action -- immediately. Here's how:

For the past 10 years, the National Conservative Campaign Fund (NCCF) has helped conservative candidates running in the country's toughest races win their battles. Our strategy is simple but effective:

1. Support the best conservative candidates in open-seat contests.
2. Target help to the top conservative challengers to vulnerable liberal incumbents.
3. Assist conservative incumbents facing strong challenges of their own.

NCCF has no fancy offices and no high-paid staff. That means more money goes directly to candidates. Also, NCCF doesn't waste money by giving to candidates certain to win (they don't need the help) or candidates with no chance of being elected. Instead, NCCF steps in to assist conservatives battling in the hardest-fought contests, where “early money” and timely help down the stretch can mean the difference between victory or defeat.

Who has NCCF help get elected? Conservative stalwarts such as Michele Bachmann (MN), Mike Pence (IN), and Jeb Hensarling (TX) in the House, among others, and U.S. Senate patriots such as Tom Coburn (OK) and Jim DeMint (SC). We'll be there for them in 2010 -- and for other conservatives such as Pat Toomey (PA), running against turncoat Arlen Specter for the Senate, and dozens of conservative House candidates from coast to coast.

Yes, NCCF will be there for them -- if we can count on you to be there for NCCF. Your contribution of $100 or more not only will go to work immediately helping good candidates, it also entitles you to a FREE copy of Culture of Corruption by Michelle Malkin. This devastating exposé spent an incredible six weeks atop the New York Times best-seller list! It's your “must have” book for fighting back against liberal onslaughts.

My friend, the stakes are as high as they have ever been. And the contrast could not be starker: electing pro-freedom, pro-Constitution, conservative candidates who will work to stop the march to socialism vs. more Obama-Pelosi-Reid policies that will tax you, control you, and hammer away at your liberties.

I'm asking you to please act today. Why? Because planning and mounting winning campaigns takes both time and money. The earlier good conservative candidates have the resources to hire staff, prepare advertising, recruit volunteers, and do the other necessary things, the better their chances for victory in November.

Maybe you've heard of the far-left political action committee called EMILY's List. Did you know that it stands for “Early Money Is Like Yeast -- it makes the ‘dough’ rise”? Believe me, the liberals “get it.” They make sure their candidates have early money, and plenty of it. Conservatives must do likewise.

Your maximum gift to NCCF will pay real dividends. That's because, with little overhead, NCCF is able to give more to top candidates who are committed to win. What's more, NCCF won't delay in making sure pro-freedom candidates get the help they need immediately -- candidates such as Steve Chabot (OH), Martha Roby (AL) and Steve Pearce (NM).

Can I count on you to stand with NCCF and against the Obama-Pelosi-Reid agenda? Will you help NCCF and its program for conservative victory?

(over, please)

Your support is critically important. Your gift will have an impact right away. On behalf of NCCF's volunteer leadership, and the candidates it supports, thank you for standing with us.

Yours for Liberty,

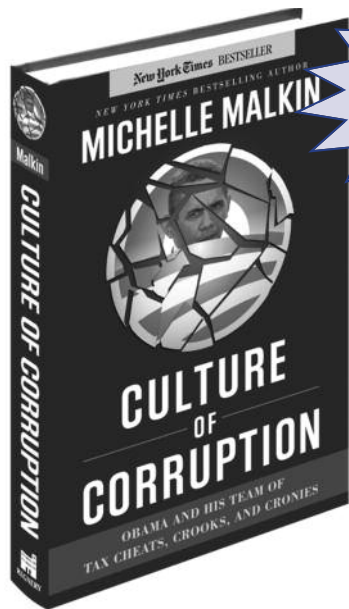

D. Jeffrey Hollingsworth
Executive Director

P.S. Don't forget -- your gift of $100 or more entitles you to your personal copy of Michelle Malkin's Culture of Corruption, FREE! It pulls no punches in laying bare the Obama Administration's seamy underside with facts the liberal news media are desperate to keep hidden. Please make your gift to NCCF today -- there's no time to waste if conservatives want victory in 2010. Your generous gift will be put to work immediately to help the best conservative candidates battling in the hardest-fought campaigns nationwide. Thank you!

★ ★ ★ STOP THE MARCH TO SOCIALISM! ★ ★ ★

Dear Mr. Hollingsworth:

YES, I AGREE. The radical Obama-Pelosi-Reid agenda for a socialist America can be stopped in its tracks only by a Congress ready to say "No, you don't!" instead of "Yes we can." I understand that to change Congress, more true conservatives must be elected. For them to win, they need the resources to get their message out. That's why I'm standing with NCCF and sending my maximum possible gift so conservative candidates can gear up now for victory next November.

My gift of $100 or more entitles me to a free copy of Culture of Corruption by Michelle Malkin.
